Brief History

After living in a film production area near Denham Studios London, I immigrated to Australia. At school I pursued an active interest in lighting for stage and musical productions, as well as a relatively successful musical career. I joined Crawford Productions in 1974 working on many of their shows such as Bluey, Young Ramsay, Homicide, and The Sullivans. In 1978 I went to HSV7 working in variety and drama, then after purchasing my own equipment, furthered my career by freelancing. Since then I have been involved in all facets of the Film, T.V. and Entertainment industry. I hold a Rescue Divers qualification and have experience in underwater lighting.

I have worked in England, Europe, Asia, Africa, Polynesia, Central and South America, and most areas of Australia. I am a member of the Australian Cinematographers Society and the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

In 2004 and again in 2005 I was nominated for an American Emmy Award for lighting in the category of Outstanding Cinematography.
