I have worked extensively on television commercials, TV series and both big and small budget feature films in a variety of roles.

As a Unit Manager I've been in charge of logistics for a film crew on location. The main skills involved are planning, organizing and executing the setting up of a base of operations for a film crew, including shelter, toilets and other amenities and then servicing the cast, crew and clients with friendly hospitality and barista skills throughout the shoot. The job also involves truck driving to and from locations.

I also worked for two years as a mental health support worker at the Royal Melbourne Hospital psychiatric ward.

Below is a small sample of shoots I've worked on and jobs I've done. Please don't hesitate to contact me, or my referees, if you have any questions.
