CV Date: December 2019

A Sound Recordist with a solid background. Ross started at the BBC with a full formal apprenticeship, continuing into 12 years on staff with the corporation before moving to Australia.

He brings extensive experience across a wide range of audio disciplines on every scale of production. His work includes Drama, Documentary, News, Music, Sport, Studio, Outside Broadcast, Events and more.

Ross has a calm disposition and a cool head under pressure. He is a good communicator with great on-set manner, attentive to detail and a focused operator.

Whether working out of the bag or off the cart, Ross has the right gear for the job.
