Profile

Kevin is a seasoned professional with over 20 years of dedicated experience in the Australian television and film industry. Throughout his career, Kevin has honed his skills in the camera department, contributing to a diverse array of international and local productions, including feature films, television dramas, TV commercials, and documentaries.

Kevin's commitment to excellence extends beyond technical proficiency; he is deeply passionate about fostering a collaborative and supportive environment on set. As a result, he prioritizes the well-being and productivity of his Director of Photography and all other members of the filming crew, recognizing their integral roles in achieving the best possible outcomes for each project.
