PROFILE

I am a recent film and television graduate from Swinburne with a passion for sound who is looking to enter the professional industry. In the past few years I have thrived in a team orientated environment focusing on sound recording, boom operating as well as sound design and mixing. I am to learn outside of my comfort zone and pick up new skills and experiences whilst also maintaining a high degree of professionalism and responsibility. I look forward to entering the film industry with passion and integrity.
