Testimonial

"Thanks Jack, as per usual your sound was superb and Michael Den Elzin was over the moon with the quality and separation of tracks. You're Definitely our go to sound guy, it's not a gig for everyone and tough going and crazy but you are a pillar of calmness and professionalism. All the best"

David Batty - Rebel Films

BIO

Since 2009, I've had the privilege of capturing sound in some of the world's most amazing locations. From distant horizons to the heart of bustling cities, I bring well over a decade of experience and a passion for sound.

My commitment extends to being ready for your next project. Armed with an extensive and professional sound kit, I ensure that the audio quality matches the high quality visuals of your productions.

Having contributed to some of Australia's largest productions, I bring a wealth of experience across all formats. Based in the vibrant city of Melbourne but also ready to hit the road for your next venture.

Why consider my services?

1. Decade-Long Dedication: With a solid foundation since 2009, I bring a wealth of experience and skills in diverse situations.
2. Ready for Action: My professional sound kit is not just equipment; it's a makeup of years of investment, perfecting workflow, training and research.
3. Versatility in Production Formats: From cinematic productions to intricate projects, my experience spans across all formats, making me a versatile crew member to your team.
4. Melbourne-Based, Globally Available: While Melbourne is my home turf, my passion for sound sends me all over. I'm always thrilled to travel and bring my expertise to wherever your production takes us.

Please reach out to discuss how we can collaboratively enhance your next production. Your vision deserves the best, and I'm here to ensure the audio resonates as powerfully as your visuals.
